From Their Majesties

Unto the populace of the Outlands do Hrothgar, King of the Outlands and Supreme ruler of Madigonia, and Madigan, His Queen, send greetings.

We are well pleased with Our Crown Tournament in Dragonsspine. We wish to thank all who participated in the pageantry, valor and chivalry of the day. We are proud to announce that Our heir by right of arms is Master Maelgwn McCain, inspired by his consort Lady Lillian clare du Chateaurous; long live the Prince and Princess. We look forward to working with them on the Estrella war treaty as well as the many other projects whose goal is to better the Outlands and aid her people.

Be it known to all Outlanders that We support all efforts that enhance the ideals of the Society and encourage growth and prosperity within Our Kingdom. We encourage open communication about many and varied topics which affect Our realm, whether in Our presence or amongst yourselves. Each individual has much to offer the Kingdom, and through careful thought and consideration can communicate their opinions with all honor when their intentions are right and noble. Keep in mind that no one person can ever truly speak for an entire group or entity. We know that personalities clash and opinions differ, and We therefore recommend that when conversing, all of Our populace make the transition from judgment to discernment. The discussion of the formation of a principality within Our borders is a topic which has eluded open conversation for some time. The secretive air and emotional quality that this topic has previously known has made rational discussion and understanding of this topic difficult. It has eclipsed the good sense of some, and failed to give any clear representation of the will of Our populace. Open discussion is the very first step to better understanding of diverse opinions on a subject that affects Us all and We appreciate your participation. Please continue to discuss this and the myriad other topics of interest that you have amongst yourselves and with Us, when appropriate, keeping in mind the ideals put forth here and by the Society.

In service to the Outlands,

Hrothgar Madigan

From Their Highnesses

Warmest Greetings unto the populace of Our beloved Kingdom of the Outlands.

After a rigorous and bloodthirsty day on the field of battle, it is Our pleasure to be crowned as Heirs to TRM Hrothgar and Madigan. The fine Barony of Dragonsspine hosted the event with flair. The feast was excellent and many entertainers added their talents to the celebration. The freely given support of many warmed our hearts as the hot desert sun does the sands. Know that our thoughts are with you all until we meet again.

In service to the Outlands,

Maelgwn Lillian

From The Seneschal

Unto the noble gentles of the Kingdom of the Outlands from your Seneschal.

Congratulations to our new Crown Prince and Princess. I hope to see many Outlanders at the Coronation of Their Majesties' Heirs in the Shire of Nahrun Kabirun on November 14-15. I am also looking forward to Kingdom Arts & Sciences Collegium in the Shire of Windkeep on October 10-11.

There has been much talk recently concerning principality. Their Majesties, Hrothgar and Madigan, have given Their leave for all gentles to speak of this matter openly among yourselves and with Them.

I wish to state what my role is as Kingdom Seneschal. Although I live in the northern reaches of this fair Kingdom, as Kingdom Seneschal I am the legal representative of the entire Kingdom from the Citadel of the Southern Pass to the far reaches of Northwolde, from Rio de las Animas Perdidas to Hinterland, and all points between. I am available to answer questions of a legal nature, to research issues, and to mediate as needed. I serve this Kingdom at the behest of the Society and Their Royal Majesties and for the good of the Kingdom.

The hallmark of our Society for Creative Anachronism is courtesy. Please, good gentles, I urge you to listen carefully to all points brought forth concerning all issues. Try to stand in others' shoes for a bit and view the world as they do. Such an exercise can be quite enlightening. Her Majesty made an observation at Field of Gold that our Kingdom is made up of individuals and that each has his or her own individual opinion on any subject. Do not hesitate to ask "what if" questions, and do always keep the good of this glorious Kingdom foremost in your minds.

In this "information age", a small number of you have quick access to conversation through the Outlands listserv on the Internet. Think very carefully before reacting and respond only with those words you would say in person. Remember that the great majority are not active on the Outlands listserv and therefore you do not read those opinions. Many do not have access to the Internet or choose not to participate. Remember that those gentles also have valid opinions on this and other issues. I have found that face to face conversations are considerably more satisfying than those that are virtual or via telephone.

I look forward to seeing many of you at a number of events as we enter this season of harvest and celebration.

In service,

Coemri

From The White Stag Principal Herald

I would once again like to thank the Wharrow Pursuivant, THLd Roland O'Rourke, for the work he has done raising funds for the White Stag office. He personally raised $9.00 at Stagscon and $8.00 at Queen's Prize laminating blue cards. In my quarterly report that I sent out in July, I passed on to the branch heralds his recommendation that each shire donate $20 and each Barony donate $50. The results have been quite encouraging! Hawk's Hollow, Duthaich Beinne Aird, and Kahlland have each sent me $20. The Barony of Caerthe has sent me $50. I would like to thank them all publicly for their generous donations. The money will be used to provide all of the branch heralds with useful heraldic references and resources.

THLd Roland's next suggestion is that we hold a silent auction to benefit the White Stag office at al-Barran Midwinter and Caerthen 12th Night. Any artisans who would be willing to donate wares for this endeavor please contact THLrd Roland or myself. This effort could raise enough money to buy actual books for each of the branch heralds!

Thank you for your consideration,

Lord Pendar the Bard, White Stag Principal Herald

From the Marshal of Fence

Unto the populace of the Outlands, does Donâ Aindrea MacCullaich send happy greetings!

First, a serious issue. Hopefully, you have all heard this sooner. At the writing of this article, I have just returned from Pennsic War, and saw some scary things. Recently purchased France-Lame epee blades are breaking in nasty ways with very little effort. I have discussed this issue with the Society Marshal of Fence, and have decided to not allow any France-Lame epee blades purchased after January 1, 1998. If and when France-Lame acknowledges and fixes the problem I will let everyone know. If you have purchased one of these blades, please contact me immediately.

Second, I am certain that there are rapier authorizing marshals that I have yet to make contact with. Anyone who thinks they are able to authorize but have not sent me a report since I took this office must contact me right away.

On a much funner note, I am greatly pleased with the interest that many people are having in studying period fencing manuals. I have noticed an increase in skill and knowledge, and have seen true examples of the Art of Defense. Keep it up, and if anyone needs any help, please ask.

I would like to thank Lord Frithuric Ullman for running a fabulous tournament at Pennsic. Their Majesties provided a big bag of loot, and I heard that it was one of the most enjoyable tourneys there. Well done, all of you that helped, too.

I have E-mail now. It is aindrea@juno.com . I can almost hear the cheers.....

In Service,

Aindrea MacCullaich

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences

COLLEGIUM COLLEGIUM COLLEGIUM COLLEGIUM

Kyla MacIntyre receives the award for most dedicated officer this month. She explained that her report was late because she had a baby! Congratulations to her and her husband on their new son, Timothy!

Her Royal Majesty, Madigan sent out letters asking that Queen's Prize not be held next year to give everyone and the event a rest. The event has been held four times and it could be held again in the future. She also indicated that since the turnout has been low for the Kingdom A&S Competitions the last two years, everyone might begin preparing for that instead.

On a similar note, I have decided that the Southern A&S event in April be a collegium, not a competition. I would like everyone to concentrate on the competition at Estrella and your local competitions instead. Kingdom competition will resume in the fall in the North.

Congratulations to LADY Amanda Murray for receiving her AoA!! She is the youngest A&S Officer in the Kingdom and sends some of the most regular and complete reports of all A&S officers.

Check out the new web page (http://www.flash.net/~demetria/). Lady Skia, one of my deputies, started it up. It should have the most updated class list for the upcoming A&S Collegium to be held in Windkeep on October 10th. My other deputy, Lady Lillian, has been gathering teachers for the October Collegium. You will find the class list and most up to date schedule on the Web Page. I will mail out a copy with my next report .

Estrella News: As of this moment the A&S Competition categories for Estrella War are still being discussed. Each kingdom was asked to pick a category and the final category would be decided by consensus. I don't have definitions for exactly how broad or narrow the categories will be, but I will let you know as soon as I do. Of course, all of this is dependent on the treaty talks in October.

The categories as of 8/26/98 are Ceramics, Field Garb, Middle Eastern Dance, Calligraphy and Illumination and Carving (now you see why we need to narrow the scope of some of the categories.) Lady Lillian had the brilliant idea of offering classes in the five categories at A&S Collegium so more people will be prepared to enter. She is currently working on recruiting teachers in these subjects. Artemesia asked that Middle Eastern Dance be one of the categories. Boy are they in for a big surprise when the Outlands dancers show up.

I love the Outlands!!

From The Kingdom Scribe

Greetings to one and all.

I wanted to let everyone know that I will be stepping down as Kingdom Scribe at the Outlands A&S Collegium in Windkeep this month. The Honorable Lady Maredudd Angharad ferch Gwenhyfar will be taking over the office at that time, although I will continue to edit the Scribe's Handbook until it is ready for publication.

Thank you to all of those who have made the hundreds of scrolls produced over the last 5 reigns. I have enjoyed working with all of you, and I ask that all scribes be as considerate and helpful to Maredudd as you have been during my tenure as Kingdom Scribe. Thank you in particular to my deputies THL Wyndylyn, and THL Caelte, and to all those who helped in assigning scrolls. There is no way that anyone can do this job without help, and I am confident that Maredudd will do an excellent job in the future with your continued support.

In service to Crown and Kingdom,

Tatiana

Incoming Kingdom Scribe: THLdy Maredudd Angharad ferch Gwenhyfar (Melanie Unruh-Bays), 1904 E. 16th Avenue, Denver, CO 80206-1140, maredudd@caerthe.org

From the Outgoing Kingdom Chronicler

Unto the Populace of the Outlands does Rüdeger send Greetings!

I have recently had a significant set of changes in my mundane life, and find that I must step down from the office of Kingdom Chronicler somewhat earlier than anticipated. This brings out mixed feelings, as there are many things I've enjoyed about this position, and I feel that I've managed to make a positive contribution or two. On the other hand, I suspect that my late-night-get-the-newsletter-out ulcer might think about going into remission.

Laird Duncan MacAllister, who has been doing much of the work on the OH these last few months, is my successor. We are transferring the office at Kingdom Arts and Sciences in Windkeep on October 10. I will remain as his deputy for a few months, as is customary.

Last month, I stated that all submissions, queries, et cetera, should be directed to myself. That was, of course, before I knew I would be stepping down so soon. All communication should be directed to Laird Duncan (Eric Schooley), 900 E. 6th Street, Cheyenne, WY 82007, (307) 637-5293, lairdduncan@earthlink.net. Anything I receive will be forwarded on to him, but there will be a (perhaps significant) delay. It would be truly unfortunate if an article were not to be published because it was sent to the wrong address and thus arrived too late to be included.

Lastly, I would like to say that I have every confidence in Laird Duncan, and believe he will handle the role of Kingdom Chronicler at least as well as, and probably better than, I have done.

In Service to the Outlands,

Rüdeger

From the Incoming Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings unto the populace of the Outlands from Laird Duncan MacAllister.

Firstly, I would like to thank Lord Rüdeger for his long and unwavering service to the Kingdom Chronicler's office during his tenure. Having been an autocrat, and now seeing what he has gone through, I have a new appreciation for he and his predecessors in this position. I only hope that I will be able to maintain and augment the professionalism and integrity of The Outlandish Herald that Lord Rüdeger has protected during his tenure.

I would ask that the populace be patient while the full changeover takes place. It is occurring sooner than either Lord Rüdeger or I expected, and things will likely be getting crazier than normal for the next production cycle. Also, please endeavor to send all submission materials, questions, comments, et. al. to me at the address listed both on the inside cover of this issue of the OH and in Lord Rüdeger's letter.

I thank Lord Rüdeger again for his confidence in me, and I will carry that with me as I continue along with my newfound duties.

In service to the Outlands,

Duncan

From the Kingdom Chamberlain

Greetings to all of the Kingdom of the Outlands from THLdy Emma of Essex, Kingdom Chamberlain.

The primary duty of the office of the Kingdom Chamberlain is to inventory and maintain the regalia of the Crown. It has been my pleasure to serve the Outlands as the Kingdom Chamberlain for 5 years, but I find that it is now time to undertake new and different challenges. I am looking for someone wishing to take over this office.

The function of the Kingdom Chamberlain is to inventory the regalia once a reign and report on the condition of all regalia. The Kingdom Chamberlain is also responsible for making any repairs necessary to the regalia or commissioning new regalia as necessary. Finally, the Kingdom Chamberlain stores the regalia retired by the Crown.

The requirements for this office is to attend Crown Tournament and Coronation during each reign - no matter the location of these events - to aid in the passing on of the regalia from one reign to the next. You must also have accessible storage space, as it will be your responsibility to store any regalia that the Crown does not choose to use during the reign, in addition to storing any retired regalia. (Currently, I am storing enough regalia to fill a 5 by 5 foot space.) Besides reliable transportation to attend events and Kingdom Officers meetings, you must also have a reliable means of communication (telephone), e-mail is a plus, because it is your responsibility to maintain communication with the Crown, Kingdom Seneschal and Kingdom Exchequer.

While this may sound like an over-whelming job, the office is a pleasure to hold and a great way to learn about Outlands traditions, customs, and history.

Anyone interested in holding this office should send letters of interest to myself and to the Crown at the addresses listed in the front cover of this issue.

In Service to the Outlands, I remain,

Emma

Boar's War

Tir Ysgithr, October 9-12, AS XXXIII (1998)

Ah, the Arts of War! The strategies, the sorties, the besiegers and the besieged. Oh, the war engines, and the quarrels and bolts of conflict. All of these and more await you at Boar's War, held in the Barony of Tir Ysgithr (Tucson Az) at the Pima County Fairgrounds, October 9th through October 12th, 1998. The site opens at 8:00a on Friday, Oct. 9th and closes at 5:00p on Monday, Oct. 12th.

Boar's War is a theme war, and siege is this year's theme. All of the scenarios will center on and around a motte and bailey. This allows the fighting to be fast and furious with only short breaks between scenarios. It also gets the participants off the field and to the showers before the hottest part of the afternoon.

Facilities: Forty acres of camping starting just south of the sound stage. You may drive your vehicle onto your campsite to unload, then please park in the designated parking area. There will be both permanent bathrooms, real shower facilities, as well as port-a-johns on site. RV hook-ups may be rented for $12.50/day; however, NO TENTS can be placed in the RV area due to underground utilities. Equestrian events are scheduled for Sunday. A warm-up and competition arena will be provided. Stables/horse stalls will be available for rent for $7/ day, and bedding is for sale at $5.50/bag. No portable stalls will be permitted due to liability issues.

Ice can be purchased for $4/ bag at the Tavern. Pets welcome, but please keepthem on a leash or contained in your camp.

The site is wet; however, in accordance with the local liquor license, ALL ALCOHOL CONSUMED ON SITE MUST BE PURCHASED FROM THE PIMA COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS. No alcohol is permitted to be brought onto the site by anyone. Anyone violating this rule is breaking mundane law and will be asked to leave the site. Package beer will be available from the tavern, however. It is being sold directly to us, the individuals of the populace, by the Fairgrounds in 12-pack quantities and the price has come down from previous years. We do not have Pueblo Hall this year -BRING YOUR SHADE PAVILLIONS- this is Atenveldt, the Kingdom of the Sun, and it can get rather hot here.

Site Fees:

Adult (Member)	$15.00
Adult (Non-member)	$18.00
Children	$1.00/year of age
Family Rate	$50.00
Merchant	$40.00

SCENARIOS: Both Saturday and Sunday will have hardsuit, archery, and rapier scenarios from 9am to 1pm. The two principal parties of Boar's War are the Barony of Tir Ysgithr (The Kingdom of Atenveldt) and The Citadel of the Southern Pass (The Kingdom of the Outlands). We invite all our neighbors to come and swell the ranks, the more the merrier! Everyone will get to attack and defend, and forces will be divided by Baronies to even the sides.

Sack of the City III

Nahrun Kabirun, October 23-25, AS XXXIII (1998)

There are reports of a renegade Baron who has occupied an abandoned city in the south. They say he is using this base to raid and coerce the southern shires into following him. It is even said that he plans to use this base to challenge the suzerainty of the King! His Majesty's loyal Baron of the Citadel of the Southern Pass has given countenance to an expedition. The mission is to test the truth of these rumours. Now here you are. As you march through the abandoned streets, is it your imagination or did you hear something? Could there still be life here? Or, more importantly, could there still be death?

The shires of Nahrun Kabirun and Loch Thioram are hosting Sack of the City once again. Forget the hay bales. Remember the battle in the rocks from "Conan the Barbarian?" That is the setting for this battle. The site is the City of the Rocks State Park, NM. The site will open on Friday at 5pm. On Saturday starting at 10am, two heavy armies will fight it out in a series of five battles, with combat archery allowed. After lunch, those fighters still up to combat will divide up for a timed resurrection battle. Saturday evening will have a bardic competition around the bonfire. On Sunday again at 10am, the rapier combatants will take to the city for their own series of five battles. Afterwards, they too will have a timed resurrection battle for those still up to fighting. There will also be tournaments for both on the days that they are not in the city, with the extremely popular "Highlander" Tourney returning on Sunday. Site closes at 5pm on Sunday.

Throughout the weekend there will be an Arts & Sciences competition, IKAC, novelty shoots and combat archery for the archers, and a boffer version of Sack of the City for the kids (BYOBoffer).

The site has a few showers, bathrooms of both types, picnic tables and fixed grills. The site is wet. There is also the Faywood Hot Springs 2 miles from the site. The cost for the weekend is $10 for adult members, half price for children. There is a member discount of $3. Please make checks payable to SCA – Nahrun Kabirun.

Co-Autocrat: Lord James David de Argentius (Jim Doyle), PO Box 2293, Silver City, NM 88062, (505) 388-9209

To the populace of the Outlands, His Excellency, Baron Berold Blackwolf de Gilbert sends greetings. At His Majesty Hrothgar's command, I am leading an expedition into a ruined city in the Outland's southern wastelands. We go to seek out this rebel Baron who is reputed to be in hiding there and bring him to the King's justice. All loyal subjects in the south are called to action.

Praise be to Allah, Emir Asad ud Din, protector of the people, sings His praises. The infidels again beset us. If a holy war is what they want, then we shall give them a Jihad! Come to me, my allies, and defend me against this unjust persecution.

Hobgoblins Haunt

Scorpions Hollow, October 31-November 1, AS XXXIII (1998)

Again a fell presence makes itself felt in our fair Shire: livestock has gone missing, crops are wantonly destroyed, and children cower from shadows that move of their own accord. Elda Ugli walks again upon Midgard. While our people are exceedingly brave, our numbers are not enough - we require the combined stength of the Outlands and our brave allies from Ansteorra to throw the beast back into the pit from which it was spawned.

The site will open at 6pm on Friday, October 30, and close at 2pm on Sunday, November 1. Fees are $4 for the site, and $4 for the feast.

There will be camping, and the site is discreetly wet. All pets must be leashed with the leash attached to the animal's owner or a stationary structure.
